FOREWORD BY THE MINISTER FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

As a firm believer in the importance of local government as a vital element in our democratic system, I am pleased to present this publication of the official results of the local elections which were held in June, 1985. The 1985 elections were of particular significance as they marked the first stage in the programme of reform aimed at revitalising the local government system.

The book contains the detailed results of the elections, in the form of statistical tables in relation to county and county borough councils, borough and urban district councils and boards of town commissioners. Details of the transfer of votes including particulars on postal voting are provided for each county and county borough council.

I am confident that this publication will be of interest to all persons concerned with political affairs and the development of our local government system as well as to public representatives at all levels.

Minister for the Environment
August, 1986.

Postponement of 1984 local elections

1. The local elections which were due to be held in June, 1984 were postponed for one year by the Local Elections (Specification of Local Election Year) Order, 1984 (S.I. No. 6 of 1984) made by the Minister for the Environment on 12th January, 1984 and confirmed by both Houses of the Oireachtas. The purpose of the postponement was to provide time to enable a review of the local government system to be undertaken, following consultation with the representative associations of local authorities and other interested groups.

Local Government Reorganisation

2. In 1984/85 the Government initiated a programme of local government reform aimed at strengthening and expanding the role of local government and making the system more responsive to the needs of local communities. The programme envisaged changes in structures, procedures and functions with a view to bringing about a more complete system of local self-government, equipped to meet the requirements of a modern society.

The Local Government (Reorganisation) Act, 1985 was enacted as the first of a series of legislative measures necessary to give effect to the reforms. The Act dealt mainly with the organisational and electoral changes which it was necessary to have in place for the 1985 local elections.

Local Government (Reorganisation) Act, 1985

3. The main provisions of the Act are as follows—

(a) the upgrading of Galway to county borough status, extension of its boundaries, and an increase of three to fifteen in the number of elected members;
(b) the alteration of the boundary between Dublin city and county;
(c) an increase of seven to fifty two in the membership of Dublin city council;
(d) the division of County Dublin into three electoral counties:
—Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown (28 members)
—Dublin-Belgard (26 members)
—Dublin-Fingal (24 members)
(e) the application of interim arrangements pending the formal establishment as county councils of the three councils elected for the new electoral counties; and
(f) the grant to the Minister for the Environment of power to alter prior to the 1985 local elections the number of members of the county and county borough councils.

Electoral Area Boundaries Commission

4. The Government established two Boundary Commissions (one for Dublin and one for the rest of the country) to advise and report on boundaries for local electoral areas so as to bring about a more consistent relationship between population and representation within county and county boroughs.

(a) The Dublin Electoral Area Boundaries Commission was required to recommend electoral areas in Dublin City and in the three new electoral counties, taking account of the population as ascertained at the 1981 Census and seeking to preserve natural communities and the affinities of different areas. Each electoral area should have not more than 5 seats. The Commission was also required to recommend the division of the City and the electoral counties into districts for which district councils would be established.
(b) The County and County Borough Electoral Area Boundaries Commission was required to revise the representation on county councils and county borough councils (other than Dublin) with a view to ensuring reasonable relationship between population and representation within each local authority. This could be brought about by boundary changes between electoral areas, by increasing county council membership or by a combination of these measures. The Commission was required to have regard to the preservation of natural communities, the possibility of aligning electoral area boundaries with those of Dail constituencies and the undesirability of adding an excessive number of additional councillors in any county.

The Commission was required to recommend the sub-division of any electoral area having more than 7 seats. The Commission was also required to recommend, following consultation with the local authorities concerned, whether and in what manner the boundaries of the cities of Cork, Limerick and Galway should be extended.

Both commissions reported in February, 1985. The County and County Borough Commission recommended that the membership of the following county councils should be increased:

Clare (one extra), Cork (two extra), Donegal (one extra), Kerry (one extra), Kildare (four extra), Limerick (one extra), Sligo (one extra) and Wicklow (three extra).

A reduction of one member in Galway County Council was recommended because of the detachment of Galway Borough from the county and its establishment as a county borough. Electoral area boundary changes were recommended in every county (except Wexford) and the county boroughs of Cork, Limerick and Waterford and in Galway City.

As regards city boundaries, the commission recommended that the boundary of Galway should be extended to include twenty-six townlands in the western environs and sixteen in the eastern environs as agreed by the local authorities concerned. Following local consultations the Commission was not in a position to recommend specific changes in the boundaries of Cork City or Limerick City.

The Government accepted the recommendations made by both Commissions. The recommendations in relation to electoral areas and membership were implemented in a series of orders made by the Minister for the Environment. Section 19 of the Local Government (Reorganisation) Act, 1985, gave effect to the recommendation regarding the extension of the boundary of Galway City.

Postal Voting

7. At the June, 1974 local elections postal voting was made available under the Local Elections (Postal Voting) Regulations, 1974 (S.I. No. 118 of 1974) to any person who was unable to vote in person at his polling station by reason of the circumstances of his occupation, service or employment, absence from the address where he was registered, illness or physical disability, or his employment by a returning officer in connection with an election. These extended facilities were suspended for the 1979 local elections which were held on the same day as the European Assembly elections because it was considered impractical to have different postal voting arrangements operating at two elections held on the same day.

In anticipation of the 1985 local elections the 1974 regulations were amended by the Local Elections (Postal Voting) (Amendment) Regulations, 1985, (S.I. No. 68 of 1985).

The main changes were:

—eligibility was confined to persons unable to vote in person by reason of the circumstances of their occupation, service or employment or physical illness or disability;

—the period for receipt of applications expired on 30th April (i.e., in advance of the election campaign);

—an application had to be supported by a medical certificate, an employer's certificate or, in the case of the self-employed, by a statutory declaration;

—the returning officer was empowered to seek additional information and had to be satisfied that the applicant was qualified to vote by post;

—postal voting papers were issued by registered post.

Local Elections, 1985

8. Local elections were held throughout the country on 20th June, 1985 to all county councils, county borough councils, borough councils, urban district councils and town commissioners. The total local government electorate was 2,444,247 and a total of 3,348 candidates stood for election to 1,618 seats in 265 electoral areas. The elections were contested in every local electoral area.

For comparison purposes the following table sets out the percentage of the electorate represented by total votes cast at the 1985 local elections and previous local elections:—

	1967 %	1974 %	1979 %	1985 %
County Borough Councils, except Dublin	67	57	59	51
Dublin County Borough Council	52	40	48	43
County Councils	72	68	67	63
Borough and Urban District Councils	69	65	64	62
Town Commissioners	73	70	70	66
Total	67	62	64	60

Invalid votes at the elections represented 1.3% of the total votes cast.

This publication is in the same format as that issued in respect of the 1979 local elections with the addition of statistics on postal voting. Detailed results of the elections, including transfer of votes are provided for each county and county borough electoral area (Galway is treated as a county borough). Because of the number of electoral areas concerned, it would not be practicable to publish similar information for boroughs, urban districts and towns. Where detailed information is required about the elections in such areas the enquiry should be directed to the local authority concerned.

The statistical tables relate to all local authorities. Table A shows for each local authority, in summary form, the number of seats, the number of electors on the 1985/86 register of local government electors, the total numbers of votes cast, the percentage of electors who voted, the number of invalid votes, invalid votes as a percentage of the total votes cast and the valid poll. Table B shows for each local authority the number of candidates, the percentage of first preference votes and the number of seats for each political party. Table C contains an analysis of the invalid votes. Table D shows the number of applications for postal voting under the provisions of the Local Elections (Postal Voting) (Amendment) Regulations, 1985 and their percentage of the electorate, the number of invalid and late applications and their percentage of the number of applications, the number and classification of the valid applications and their percentage of the valid applications.

In accordance with the Local Elections Regulations, 1965 the names of the registered political parties to which candidates are affiliated may be shown on the ballot papers. Such party affiliations are also shown in this report. The following abbreviations are used:

C.P.I.	—The Communist Party of Ireland
D.P.P.	—Donegal Progressive Party
D.S.P.	—Democratic Socialist Party
F.F.	—Fianna Fáil
F.G.	—Fine Gael
G.A.	—The Green Alliance
Lab.	—The Labour Party
W.P.	—The Workers' Party

Where a candidate was described as Non-Party on the ballot paper he/she is also so described here.

The information in this book is based on returns furnished by the local authorities.
