Foreword

The local elections held on 11 June 2004 constituted a milestone in the history of local government. They were the first local elections to be held since the coming into force in 1999 of the constitutional requirement that such elections must be held every five years. Moreover, the abolition of the dual mandate meant an end to dual local authority/parliamentary membership. The new situation reflects the Government's commitment to supporting the distinct identity of local authorities as a key element of the overall governmental system.

This publication sets out results and statistics for the 2004 local elections held on Friday, 11 June 2004 in the elections to 80 borough and town councils. I have no doubt that it will prove to be a useful reference over the coming years for all those interested in local government and elections.

The results of the elections in the 34 county and city councils were published earlier this year.

Dick Roche, T.D.,
Minister for the Environment,
Heritage & Local Government.

Local Elections 2004

The election of members of all local authorities took place on 11 June 2004. Members were elected to a total of 114 authorities, comprising 29 county councils, 5 city councils, 5 borough councils and 75 town councils. The administrative area of each county and city council and of certain borough and town councils is divided into local electoral areas, for which separate local elections are held as follows:

Number and category of local authority	Number of local electoral areas	Number of seats
5 City Councils	29	130
29 County Councils	151	753
5 Borough Councils	9	60
75 Town Councils	79	684
Total: 114 local authorities	268	1,627

Polls were also taken on 11 June 2004 at the election of members to the European Parliament and at the Citizenship Referendum.

Every person aged 18 years and upwards, irrespective of nationality or citizenship, is entitled to be registered as a local government elector and to vote at local elections in the electoral area in which he/she ordinarily resides. The total number of persons entitled to vote at the 2004 local elections was 3,166,033. In addition to being entitled to vote at the county council election, an elector resident in a borough council or town council area had the right to vote in the election to the council for their particular town.

The following table compares the turnout at borough/town level at the 2004 elections with previous local elections:

	1967	1974	1979	1985	1994	1999	2004
	%	%	%	%	%	%	%
Borough and Urban District Councils	69	65	64	62	59	54
Town Commissioners	73	70	70	66	56	52
Borough Councils	-	-	-	-	-	-	56
Town Councils	-	-	-	-	-	-	58

Invalid ballot papers at the 2004 borough and town elections represented 1.76% of the total votes cast.

Subject to specified disqualifications and incompatibilities, every Irish citizen and every person ordinarily resident in the State, over 18 years, is eligible for election as a member of a local authority. At the 2004 elections, 1,265 candidates stood for election at Borough/Town level to 744 seats in 88 electoral areas.

The members elected will hold office until the next elections in 2009.
